Facts You Should Know about Political "Remedies"

YOU pick up your morning paper. You buy it and read it because it is the only means you have available to you through which you can learn what is going on in the world and the nation, and what is being done by governmental and financial agencies to ameliorate the dastardly economic plight of yourself and your neighbors. There is, of course, the radio. But all people do not own radios. Furthermore, to get news over radio you must tune in at an exact time. Newspapers are the real information-spreading agencies in this nation, and will doubtless remain so for a considerable time to come. So any group, or any individual who can dominate the news policies of the press, has you and your fortunes absolutely at his mercy.

On the first page, and in the first column, of your morning paper there is a report on the Drastic Labor Reforms to be Offered Today in Congress. Production, Hours, and wage control constitute the present aims of the Administration. Sweeping powers are to be given the Secretary of Labor to limit production and enforce wage findings.

If you are a citizen who knows anything about the Constitution, and the fundamentals on which this American Government was founded, you read with disquiet that gradually turns to alarm. What is being proposed, and railroaded into effect, is outright Socialism in which the Constitution is being both set aside and disregarded, under the guise of a national economic emergency. But the matter by no means stops there.

SOCIALISM in its purity is a very fine thing. It is supposed to be a type of government whereunder the people themselves order their political and economic affairs in the interests of the whole populace, instead of in the interests of privileged castes and groups. But by no means is it that type of Socialism which, in effect, is being railroaded through the federal congress. You are reading of political measures whereby the prevailing Administration with the full consent and connivance of the Congress technically—because the Administration has a majority of its own adherents and henchmen in the Congress—is ruthlessly and arrogantly setting up a political dictatorship.

Now a dictatorship is by no means Socialism, regardless of how many apparent socialistic measures it may seem to sponsor.

A dictatorship, by its very essence, is strictly responsible to no one but itself—that is to say, the men who constitute the dictatorship.

The fact that enough of these are in the Congress to give this despotic regime all the aspects of Constitutional authority, does not alter the fact that the moment they disregard certain fundamental features in the Constitution, representative government has ceased to exist and our vaunted democracy has passed into history. The fact that they were elected by direct vote of the people means nothing, if the people have to wait four years for any redress against them, if they take it into their heads meanwhile to alter or abolish Constitutional fundamentals while they are in power.

So you read your morning newspaper in growing alarm at what the Administration and the Congress arrogantly propose to do affecting your private and personal affairs. You disapprove mightily. But what good does it do you? What instrumentality do you possess for registering your displeasure and disapproval, before mischief is consummated that may be irretrievable?

You possess absolutely none. You and your business, your family and your person, are absolutely at the mercies of a great conclave of politicians that are safely ensconced in their seats of power for four long years, that can order you to go and come, work or idle, have money or not have money, and whose fiats are absolutely as omnipotent and unassailable as those of any Mussolini or Stalin.

And at the end of four years, when the time arrives for you to be in a position to discipline them, the whole situation may be so changed that your reprisals are against something that is archaic and forgotten.

SUCH IS our vaunted democracy in the United States of America, in the year 1933. But the end of the mischief is not yet arrived at. If these political representatives who have gotten their powers through the popular franchise were personally free to act according to their individual consciences, and in the interests of the territorial group that bestowed such dictatorial powers upon them, the system might be excusable in many of its minor abuses.

But they are not personally free, and this is in no way impugning their personal integrity. They are beholden like a gang of galley slaves to the "leaders" of their political parties, since the Party is the vague, intangible, untouchable thing that has to take the onus of failure to express the popular will, if such onus results four years hence at the polls.

They must accede to the dictates of those who are at the head of that Party, and if any individual among them attempts to exercise his individuality, or go contrary to the fiats of his Party superiors, he is "read out" of it, and crucified even while in office by means of withdrawal of political patronage, or attendance on Party councils.

This means therefore, that "representatives" of the people are naught but rubber-stamp approvers of whatever is hatched up by a few august political potentates at the top.

They may rave and rant against any such indictment, but only the moron element among our voting population is aware that it is anything other than truth.

If, therefore, any self-seeking group, or any element with predatory designs against the nation as a whole, wishes to advance its strategies, it is not necessary to deal with a great conclave of law-makers of all temperaments and shades of intelligence and opinion.

No, no! Our American system is such that all they need to do is to "make their deal" with those bigwigs near the very tip-top, or better still, put their own numbers into those tip-top offices, and the whole American people are "in the bag" for them, utterly at their mercy, and subject to any fiats called laws, which they may lay down.

But still the jeopardy to the individual citizen's rights under the Constitution, does not stop there. There is a check and a safeguard, that nothing shall be done to upset this perpetual conspiracy.

That is the practice of throwing a mantle of sacrosanct immunity against any form of criticism, around these tip-top offices and positions, leaving them inviolate against any forms of attack by the sheer fact of them being tip-top offices and positions.

It is a modern presentation in politics of the ancient wheeze of Infallibility, "that the King can do no wrong"!

This malicious but sacrosanct drivel is mischievously mislabeled Patriotism.

NOW the All-Highest in any prevalent Administrative regime, is of course the President of the United States. From the Party standpoint he is the acknowledged, if not the nominal, dictator.

Because of the distinction the office carries, adolescent humanity never having gotten entirely over thinking in terms of kingship, it has been traditional to surround this office and this potentate with an aura of royal infallibility. In other words, it is unthinkable that the President of the United States can do wrong in the slightest degree, and even if the proof is forthcoming that he has done wrong, or is doing wrong, you must always call it by some other name.

The President of the United States is inviolate in his office and in his person. He is the republican King, ruling by divine right. To utter words of condemnation against him, to criticize him in any but the politest and most emasculated language, to imply that there can be the slightest irregularity in the conduct of his office, is to place yourself in the same camp with Benedict Arnold and John Wilkes Booth.

Now that in itself would again be tolerable if the President of the United States were accountable only to his conscience, or to those persons who elected him. But under our threatened and intimidated democracy, he is likewise the tip-top man in the prevalent political Party.

If, therefore, you are astute enough in your "control" of him, you not only have the entire populace "in the bag" insofar as your own sovereign will or interests are concerned, but you can thus call up the charge of Treason and Inciting to Riot, at the least lese majesty, if you speak a word of too-harsh criticism or a breath of political scandal against him, or those, who are his "councillors."

The System is perfect for the domination of the whole people by a select few. But again the "control" must be astute enough so that nothing can be proven in the way of deprecatory practices against an office and office incumbent so high, holy, and infallible.

The method is easy for gaining to that control.

Merely manufacture conditions among the people of a nature that compels the Chief Executive and his councillors to react in a definite manner, in order to preserve the whole fabric of the government structure.

This is polite, legal, beyond criticism, and devastating in its effectiveness.

TO CARRY the recipe for the procedure one step further: having manufactured the conditions to which the All-Highest must automatically react to save his office and his government, but always in a manner that makes it appear that these conditions are strictly "natural" and "world wide," you should approach him with "remedies" . . .

If you are big enough mentally, and affluent enough economically, to have helped manufacture the conditions to which the Tip-Top Men must automatically react, you are of course big and affluent enough to be called in to "advise" him. Thus you can show him exactly what it is you want done, and no matter how honest or well-intentioned a man the Chief Executive may be, you can still in this polite, legal, and unostentatious manner practically conduct his office for him in your own designing interests.

Of course, it will not be wise to let him "tumble" that he is not the absolute czar of the situation. If he is a nice friendly fellow, fundamentally honest, willing to listen to any type of constructive advice, he will be that much easier to handle.

Most important of all, however, if anyone becomes wise or even suspicious of how you are thus shaping the affairs of the nation to your own ends through this reactionary control of the All-Highest, and makes the slightest gesture toward calling attention to your rascalities, you can thus make it appear that such criticism is leveled against the integrity of the Office and its Incumbent himself, and thus call down on the sagacious upstart the whole juggernaut of the public wrath, which in time of war can be construed as open treason against the "government."

BY THIS infallible and unbeatable policy you have every governmental agency that exists, at your command, to protect and whitewash your own clandestine maneuverings. It can make no difference to you whether a Republican President is in power, or a Democratic President, excepting that if there has recently been a change in Presidents, the public recognition that the old Administration was a bust, only makes the public that much more acquiescent in "remedies" fostered or sponsored by the new.

In this you will possess to aid you, a natural disinclination to interest oneself in the affairs of government on the part of the average voter that amounts almost to a practical distaste. Only when a great national crisis arises, like the recent closing of every bank in America, will the entire citizenry give ear to what is going on, and take a personal interest in federal palliatives.

When such a crisis arises, the public, not having paid studious attention to what chicaneries have been of moment hitherto, can be herded into supporting or acquiescing in most any sort of a measure that means immediate "relief" . . .

You need not fear that there will be any effective questionings as to why there is the necessity for relief. The System is so perfect that any such can be construed as a reflection on the personal integrity of the All-Highest.

Still further, if there is any doubt in your mind about too many citizens commencing to think, and beginning to ask themselves if these highest officers are as infallible and inviolate as tradition has taught them to accept, or if there is the faintest possibility that you may be challenged in such control of High Office by Reaction, all you have to do is to put a sudden campaign of publicity behind such President, creating a great wave of manufactured popularity in his favor. Nevermind whether he merits it or not. That is not the point. Ballyhoo him to the skies! Make up a slogan for the ordinary moron in the street to paste on his windshield, such as "It is Your Patriotic Duty to Stand By the President!" Order your henchmen in Hollywood to make motion-picture films about him that will drag forth wild applause from the stupid and illiterate in five thousand movie theaters. Have the newspapers and magazines laud him and his "new deal" . . . mob hysteria, and the tendency toward hero worship, will quickly build up a fortification which will as quickly become unassailable when cool-brained, clear-eyed non-partisan patriots get completely wise to your maneuverings and suggest that the suffering nation "go behind" the prevailing Administration and do something effective toward kicking you out of the country.

THUS in time, by adroit strategizing, you will be able to set aside the whole Constitution and set up any form of government you wish. Your Dictatorship can be thrice as impregnable as Stalin's or Mussolini's, because it apparently rests on "the will of the people." Do you not hear them frenziedly applauding or cheering their All-Highest? If you have been clever in running up the cost of government to insane heights, you can get any emasculation or elimination of government departments or government bureaus you want, by "backing the President up in his Economy Program." If any free lance journalist, wise to your whole conspiracy, tries to address the country, calling attention to your cabal, you can have him closed up sooner or later by pleading that he is "preaching intolerance" or "inciting to riot."

If any truly patriotic organization, knowing something about the Constitution, why it came into existence, and what it purported to guarantee, has the audacity to fight you with your own weapons and preach that this strange hold of Government by Reaction be broken by letting the people themselves pass on all legislation before it becomes law, you can laugh them out of court. You can plead that "the people cannot be trusted" to pass on such legislation, or "it would slow up the legislative process to futility," or "it would be tipping over our sterling republican institutions." The public, still huzzahing over your movie film about the Infallibility of the All-Highest, will agree with you in substance, being too busy cheering about nothing in particular to give much thought to where you are leading them.

AND SO we have governmental "remedies," and a "new deal" which is patently Socialism without any control whatsoever on the "Socialists." We have, in fact, a Soviet Dictatorship drawing nearer and nearer, with the Department of Justice and all the espionage agencies of government to act as the American Chekka.

But by no means must anyone utter a word, or innuendo, or commit an act, that impugns the good faith of the Chief

Walter Winchell Gets Excited Over the Silver Shirts . . .

NICE little Jewish boy by the name of Walter Winchell runs what some people call a "column" that circulates extensively in the Hearst newspapers.

On April 17, this nice little Jewish boy ran his "column" in the Washington Herald.

Under the heading "Things That Burn Me Up and Knock Me Cold" he utilized the Hearst newspapers to extensively circulate some of his characteristic "information" about The Silver Shirts. We print the piece verbatim, that all of our readers throughout North America may understand the sort of thing which William Randolph Hearst pays this precocious youth a fat salary for writing:—

"One of those organizations," says he, "in the South—a form of Ku Klux Klan, is a group called 'The Silver Shirts'. They sympathize with Hitlerism and in their magazine they declare war against the same creeds and colored races that the Klan and the Nazi oppose.

"This outfit is in Asheville, N. C. They would 'purge the world' or America, at any rate, of whites and blacks, who are not like themselves. They don't believe in President Roosevelt's idea of world peace or anything that might blend all men. They want a dictator—of their own choice. And they demand a war in this country to bring this about. They publish articles to incite hatred and bloodshed.

"Please forward this paragraph, Mr. and Mrs. America, to the Department of Justice at Washington and perhaps there'll be a 'probe'."

WELL, well, well! That's quite an arraignment. Somebody, evidently, has been calling the attention of this young son of Judah to the article we ran in Liberation a couple of weeks ago suggesting that if the Hebrews wish to free their countrymen from the yoke of Hitler, it would be an excellent scheme for them to raise their own Jewish army, sail across to Germany and do it.

If this is the article that has Burned This Nice Little Jewish Boy Up and Knocked Him Cold, we can readily understand where the thought of "hatred and bloodshed" comes from, in his Keyhole Psychology.

Sane Liberation people all over North America, and sane officials at Washington—including many right in the Department of Justice—who are fully apprized of the menace to American institutions which The Silver Shirts are organized to battle, will take much grim delight in this outburst of vilification, even though it comes from no one of more importance than this Walter Winchell, so-called "columnist."

It is an excellent indication, however, of just why there is a need for The Silver Shirts in this nation. The Hearst newspapers reach a daily reading clientele, presumably, of from 5 to 10 million people. William Randolph Hearst prides himself on being a sterling American, and to his everlasting credit he has given the American people more information about the rottenness of certain phases of officialdom in this nation, than any other agency of publicity. So we know that it wasn't published with the knowledge and consent of Mr. Hearst himself.

It was, in a manner of speaking, just one of those things which this ribald eavesdropper was in a position to "slip over," so that wherever people inadvertently hear of The Silver Shirts, without knowing of their true purposes, they will say, "Oh yes, that radical new Ku Klux organization that's trying to stir up more trouble when we've got enough already." In other words, blast the organization on hearsay evidence.

These tactics, of course, pursued extensively elsewhere, are precisely what has given rise to the Nazi Movement in Germany and is rapidly fomenting similar movements for similar purposes elsewhere.

AFTER ALL, to be grouped in the class and company with the Klan and the Nazis, is unwittingly being complimented, in times such as these, and considering what both of these organizations originally came into existence to do. As for stirring up race hatred between the whites and the blacks, we admit that we did take that colored Communist, Langston Hughes, over the waterbars, for circulating through our southern universities his blasphemous poetry—

"Christ, the Bastard, Of the bleeding mouth," . . .

Frankly, we don't like that sort of thing, coming from white, blacks—or Walter Winchell's color, either. Do we understand that this is the sort of thing he would defend? And is this his idea of that which "blends all men"?

That we demand a dictator in this country is of course mere blither. If we can write and read the English language correctly, Liberation from the first has consistently been fighting a proposed dictatorship. As for President Roosevelt's idea for world peace, it is the first intimation we have had that President Roosevelt had a program for world peace, unless it was a type of world peace desired by Mr. Bernard Baruch, Mr. Samuel Untermeyer, Mr. Felix Warburg, Mr. Eugene Meyer, Judge Brandeis, Mr. Louis Marshal, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, and "Columnist" Walter Winchell.

The last two sentences of this alleged "columnist's" arraignment are extremely interesting, however, and there is much about them that we would say to Silver Shirts.

We are indicted by this not-at-all-clever Winchell for "publishing articles that incite hatred and bloodshed." Them's fightin' words, mister, and we have no idea of grinning them off.

It is the prevalent psychology of those who are subtilely and relentlessly worming and squeezing into monopolistic power everywhere throughout American social, political, and economic life at present, that anything said or written in challenge of their pernicious activities and predatory weasellings, is "an incitement to hatred and bloodshed."

In other words, that there may be no "incitement to hatred and bloodshed," even in the righteous cause of upholding our Constitution from debauchery and abolishment, nothing must be said about them, thereby permitting them to go arrogantly ahead unchallenged and unchecked, to pull the wool over the eyes of the Anglo-Saxon, Christian Protestant native sons, whose forebears were fighting at Brandywine, Lundy's Lane, and Malvern Hill while Walter Winchell's forebears were fighting . . . where and for what?

So broken has the morale of a certain element in America become, that anything savoring of standing up on one's two feet and making a he-man's scrap for public decency, wholesome officialdom, and escape from the domination of aliens, stacks up with Communistic or anarchistic violence and is damned along with it in the same frightened breath.

You mustn't do anything to save your country, or help it, or preserve its institutions of government laid down by the forefathers, in times such as these. You might be guilty of suggesting violence. And anything suggesting violence is of course unthinkable and unethical to the elements and groups to whom direct action is equally unthinkable and who fight by means of the hired assassin and the poisoned pen.

In other words, lay down, be supine, be docile, bid adieu to your manhood, be acquiescent to lechery and venality, say: "Oh well, it's all too sizable! The country's gone to the devil and who are we to attempt to put it back!" That's the talk. Millions upon millions of dollars are being spent annually to create this psychology. Because when a people are thus browbeaten, intimidated, and frightened, they can be herded like a lot of stupid sheep to do anything in their despair and hysteria that the Big Shots steering the whole diablerie want done to further satanic world plans.

Well, we are serving full notice on this nice little Jewish boy up in New York, who makes his living digging up and printing abominable gossip, or occasionally "slipping over" things on his employer that deprecate the ideals for which Liberation is fighting, and for which The Silver Shirts have organized, that we are not going to lie down, be supine, be docile, bid adieu to our manhood, be acquiescent to lechery and venality, and say: "Oh well, it's too sizable; there's nothing we can do about it!"

There's a whole lot we can do about it, and this nice little Jewish boy is going to learn it—he and a sizeable element like him!

WINCHELL as an individual is too small fry to bother with. But the sentiment he expresses is characteristic of hundreds of thousands of aliens in America who may find within the next few years that they are stirring up a mare's nest in American life which works out greatly to their detriment.

The Silver Shirts stand squarely and unalterably for three things, although this journalistic snooper, and others who think with his cheap, blatant, Broadway psychology and fancy it is "American," will perhaps not be able to read further in this article and grasp what they are—

The Silver Shirts stand for the American Constitution in its aspect laid down by John Marshall, not Louis Marshal;

They stand for Christian institutions undefiled by an element that encourages Communist negroes to go parading about, publicly prating poetry about "Christ, the Bastard of the Bleeding Mouth."

Third and lastly, they stand for a free press and free speech, so long as it does not offer license to print libelous, salacious, or obscene material, or furnish alien motion picture makers with plots that break the morale of our citizenry and debauch the morals of our womenfolk.

When The Silver Shirts have said this, they have said everything. And if there is anything in that platform for the Department of Justice to "probe" under a nice little Jewish boy's suggestion, it is high time that 50,000 people about America—who believe in Silver Shirt principles and printings—found it out.

SOONER or later, of course, this issue is going to come to a head. The American people will test out whether or not they can utter protest against public lechery, underhanded tactics, a monopoly on all forms of publicity organs, and a carefully planned and subtilely executed program for controlling and dominating political and religious institutions which native-born, Anglo-Saxon Americans hold dear.

Of course, compared to its alien population, there are not many such in the United States just now, who recognize how thoroughly and efficiently they are being bulldozed, intimidated, made to suffer economic loss, sent chasing silly childish "issues" like beer and technocracy in order to distract their attention from the way their institutions are being undermined, debauched, subsidized, or taken from their control altogether. The whole alien diablerie is so sizable as to be chimerical. Its outward aspects are so disarming as to make it seem absurd.

But as Senator Long declared recently in the Senate, there seems to be a "mysterious influence" working in all strategic positions amid bewildering officialdom, to emasculate and render impotent all real attempts to do anything for the country, actually relieve its distress, and set into motion agencies of genuine recovery. The depression is not clearing up, it is still getting worse daily. The rights of the citizens under the Constitution are being hourly circumscribed, and our legislators made to feel with an increasing despair that the only relief lies in listening to the dictates of an alien cabal.

Sooner or later, the real Americans in this country are going to wake up with a thunderous awakening. And we shall see whether or not "there are not enough soldiers in America to drive out its mobsters" and whether our American presidents shall be obligated politically to an international money-bund that counsels them all alike regardless of faith or party.

Wrong again, Walter Winchell! And you have made a mighty error in supposing that The Silver Shirts are a southern organization just because they have headquarters in Asheville, N. C. You will hear from them from many directions until it will gradually dawn upon you that their virile habitat is not North Carolina but North America!

And they anticipate a certain Blessed Event which has nothing to do with the birth of a baby!

It is Time We Revised The Word "Abolitionist" . . .

IGHTY years ago, the term Abolitionist was heard loudly in the land.

The Abolitionists in that day were those people who stood for the abolition of slavery insofar as it appertained to the black man.

We ought to revive the word, but give it a different application.

Why not use it to designate those who would so eagerly or stupidly abolish our Constitution? For that is what is happening in the circumstance of a "controlled" Congress taking over powers, almost Soviet in character, which it by no means derives from the assent of the voters.

Making it a felony to own more than $100 worth of gold is a case in point, especially when that gold is in the form of legal currency of the United States of America.

Congress has absolutely no right or title to thus abrogate the common law and take unto itself despotic powers in any direction, just because some clique has been clever enough to project a national emergency.

It is high time that we turned to the growing temper of our citizens in this regard and had more letters to the newspapers calling attention to the principles as set forth in a recent letter to the Indianapolis Star over the signature of H. H. Evans:—

THREE is indeed much consolation in times such as these to turn the pages of American history and study the thoughts of some of our great men, and in these perilous days it is an inspiration to sit with Daniel Webster and Andrew Jackson in memory.

"After listening to the babbling effrontery of those who proclaim dictatorship in this American government, it is with promptitude that I quote from Mr. Webster:

"When we speak of preserving the Constitution we mean not the paper on which it is written, but the spirit which dwells in it. Government may lose its real character, its genius, its temper, without losing its appearance.

"Constitutional government, unless you guard it, will creep out of its casement like a snake out of its skin. You may have a despotism under the name of a republic. You may look on a government and see that it possesses all the external modes of freedom, and yet find nothing of the essence, the vitality of freedom in it, just as you may contemplate an embalmed body where art has preserved proportion and form without motion, and veins without blood."

"Again in his debate with Henry Clay in the halls of Congress, in one of the most vital periods in American history and similar to that which confronts us today, Mr. Webster said:

"It is the truest American policy which shall most usefully employ American capital and American labor, and best sustains the whole population. With me it is a fundamental axiom, it is interwoven with all of my opinions, that the greatest interests of the country are one and inseparable: that agriculture, commerce, and manufacture, will prosper together or languish together, and that all legislation is dangerous which proposes to benefit one of these without looking to the consequences which may fall on the others."

AS APPLICABLE to American government, no truer words ever fell from the lips of man. Over one hundred years ago, Andrew Jackson, addressing his constituents in Tennessee, said:—

"Human nature is restless, and man, as he has ever been, is ambitious. For these reasons the world will never remain at peace. Because our government is founded on new principles we cannot trust alone to that; but mark with care and caution the secret and silent inroads with which intrigue, ambition, and cunning may from time to time originate."

"In selecting at any time an agent to discharge the functions of government which must necessarily be confided to him who represents us, we should be very careful of our selection. Let it be that agent has the welfare of people at heart, and in his soul, and that they have taken their dwelling in him and he in them. By this means, and only this, can our government go down unimpaired to posterity. Mere form and ceremony in the guidance of our affairs can avail but little. We must be careful and vigilant to adhere to those great principles which characterize and mark the government which we possess."

AS MR. EVANS aptly adds: "I believe that these men were inspired, and foresaw the very evils which confront us today. Not one word did they utter in favor of office-seekers or office-holders contemplating or building up political machines to benefit themselves, rather than looking toward the welfare of the people. They hated the dynasty of kings and paternalism in government."

We might add, however, without cynicism, that not one word of provision did they make either, against a time when an alien element would become so powerful throughout the nation, economically ahead of politically, when it would have the effrontery to try to stamp its own despotic ideas on free Anglo-Saxon institutions and reshape them to its own designs.

It was unthinkable to the continental fathers that the time would arrive, within a short 157 years, when posterity's morale would be so debauched and broken that it wouldn't care a fig what kind of government ran the country so long as there were two cars in every garage and a chicken in every pot.

Two well-chosen clippings, Mr. Evans!

"Heighten Your Outlook" . . .

Y BELOVED, I address you; I say to you Peace!

2 I speak to you of forebodings that have no place in that which is projected.

3 True, ye cannot see circumstance in all its deployments, and the vista looketh black or static according to your vision;

4 But avaunt yourselves of this pestilence of sinecure; open your eyes to understanding of events that are occurring all about you: oppress not yourselves by errors of judgments in worldly transfixions;

5 Be humble of concept, and contrite in submission, to a force that is working beyond your comprehension.

6 I bid ye speak it that man, having a higher resting-place in knowledge, hath a revelation due him of that which impendeth.

7 To say that any one man is responsible for this revelation is foolish to absurdity, but the Chosen are chosen, and the Called have been called: thus is it written.

8 Happy is the man who can say to himself: I am myself, unto myself; I am sufficient, in that I am; I need neither revilings from circumstance nor plaudits from people who know not my mission; I go and come, unfree only to Him whom I serve.

9 Settle in your minds and hearts upon the industry of the brevet until it becometh a living thing to you, and ye profit accordingly.

10 Ye have raised questions as to this and that in your behavior; raise them no more; act not upon the fiat: Our Lord saith, Thus we do with profit and that we do with wrackings of spirit;

11 At all times be guided by reason in your labors, and meet me on the plane of super-intellect, discharging your brevets in the light of goodly sense.

12 I have no mission to make you picayune in your discernments; I do not say at any time: This specific thing be done or forfeit follows smallly;

13 Thus do I speak to you: We have a plan for procedure, certain items are relevant to it, others are base or worthless, others pertinent but not important of major manifestation: those things do which have in them reason, clarity of conscience, nobility of perception, agility of execution, wisdom of experiencing;

14 All others do not, for they are chaff in the winnowed wheat of endeavor.

15 Go ye to this man and adjust your obligation, or to this woman and say: How can I serve you briefest in the light of your quandary?

16 But take no thought of extra portions of labors effectable for the mere happiness of men and women as they adjudge it;

17 Go straight to your goals as the road alloweth, and all things bend themselves to speed your traveling.

18 I say this to you also: Thoughts given oppressively to

Q OUT of the vastness of Cosmos the Psychic Antennae tunes in on a Voice. If the Word was made flesh and spake once to men, how much stronger may be its pronouncements when the handicaps of the flesh are perished? If we cannot believe this, to Whom or What shall we look for authority of commitments like the following? . . . . .

little circumstances put lions in the pathway that decelerate your moving forward.

19 Journey joyously, journey happily, knowing that obstructions can be encountered on any highroad, that any travel-way hath its petty botherances and climb and terrain;

20 Do ye adjudge them with vigor and make of them stepping-stones.

21 Heighten your outlook: view the panorama that beckoneth from the years;

22 Say to yourselves: We sweep everything aside henceforth having petty annoyances and preferences within our observations; we stand ennobled on a hilltop and read the sunlight as a volume holding scripture for our knowing; henceforth we partake of no circumstance not of our choosing for the Plan in its entirety;

23 We become birds of passage in worldly event, but passing to a high, high place among the councils of the learned.

24 Remember this, beloved: Anchors are for ships that cannot resist great tides of motion;

25 Be ye not anchored at any time, nor do ye let the tides of motion in personal affairs bear you meaninglessly upon their crests;

26 Plow crosswise, bethinking no anchors, wanting no anchors; leaping joyously in the sun of perfect freedom of foot and heart.

27 Can ye not understand this?

28 At all times do I want you to say to yourselves: Our years are given to a goodly master who compensateth with love that profiteth us in circumstance; we treat with Him only in our discernments of activities; we say to ourselves, even in our preferences: Let us consider which stick of mosaic we now do chisel to fit upon the pattern of that which is prescribed; naught else do we.

29 Concentrate so strongly on this, beloved, that naught else entereth into your thinking in eschewments with those who make common life with you.

30 It is well that ye know this: Ye are coming to a pass in your affairs where no earthly thing can have claim upon you, no earthly business, no earthly relationship, wandering as the hare or the wren for a purpose, that ye evalute all men's affairs impersonally, having no brushes in common with them from the standpoint of unnecessary chattels not pertinent to your efficient laboring.

31 Do ye not see that I bid you be free to perform a goodly work in a vast vineyard, carrying on your backs no baskets of impediments that spill to your discomfiture if sobeit ye do trip among the vines, but treading lightly and swiftly where occasion calleth you, having no burden yourselves, that ye may be free to give strength to others.

32 Avaunt not your hearts that it should not be so, for ye add confusions unto yourselves!

33 Further I say not.

PEACE.

What High Mentors Say of "The Emptiness of Israel" . . .

Psychically Received

INNUMERABLE solutions have been advanced for the state of affairs in the world today, particularly those affairs that have to do with the status of Israel and the peoples of Israel. Let us tell you something about the peoples of Israel this hour as having a direct bearing on the work that you do.

In the first place, as has aptly been said, the Jews are Israelites but the Israelites are not Jews. The distinction is sharp, and where it should be.

It happens to be the lot of some men to be born Israelites in the world today, and to the lot of others to be born "Jews in Israel."

Now, strictly speaking, there is no such thing as being born a "Jew in Israel" because the worldly kingdom of Israel has long since ceased to exist. It does not follow, however, that Israel as a Spiritual Kingdom has ceased to exist.

In the olden time, Israel was a name given to a peculiar set of people who worshipped God in a specific manner. Make no other explanation, or seek for none, for the term Israel than this. The Hebrews worshipped God as a spirit, not as an entity, more than you think. There are those inclined to be hard on Hebrews, or Jews, as you prefer, because they execute worldly practices of which you do not approve. That is right and proper insofar as it goes. But it is not fair in certain respects that have to do with spirit.

THE ANCIENT Hebrew religion, as originally conceived by Moses, and we are much inclined to the belief that Moses as a personal leader and law-giver did exist, had it that God was a literal being, true enough. But He was always a literal spiritual being. He was a "person" of component parts in Spirit presentation, naught else.

The ancient Hebrews believed, or held, that man as spirit was something different from God in that man fell far short of the divine presentation, or what they conceived the divine presentation to be. They did not at any time think of God as, say, the negro thinks of God in your earthly drama Green Pastures. God was at all times a literal spirit, a spirit that could go and come at will, descending on a whole people or a whole nation, and holding communication and communion with them, quite as facilely as for an individual.

That is to say, they attributed to God the Jehovah-Father, all that you attribute to Christ, the "wiser Elder Brother." They thought of God the Father as possessing all the attributes which you admit and recognize in the Christ. The nomenclature for the Deity was different, that is all. And the Hebrews of today, taking them by and large, hold exactly the same concepts. We revere and adulate Jesus, the Christ, the God-Son. The ancient Hebrews saw the personal companion in the Midianite representation of exactly the same thing, the same idea, the same concept.

NOW in dealing with Hebrews of the present, it is necessary at all times to bear this in mind. They think of their Jehovah as the all-powerful Christ-Force epitomized in the incarnate principles of Good and Evil, positive and negative. But they make this distinction: They think of the whole Being as taking place in God and of God and see no need for any additions to the divine potentate.

We should find no fault with them for this, if they truly believe it and carry their beliefs out in action. Where we as Christians and followers of Our Lord take issue with them is in this: We say that it is not possible for the Holy Spirit to be in the man-companion form and the Christian All-Creative Force, at the same time. It belittles or minimizes the powers of the Creative Force to have it manifesting solely as a mortally-formed individual. So we "invent," so to speak, the Christos Idea to ourselves, or we recognize in the Christ the Creative Principle set apart in a peculiar order of Avatar Spirit doing a specific thing, or rendering a certain mission, to Itself and to the Man-Race, which likewise is a "part" of Itself.

LET us make this clearer. We are by no means minimizing Christ when we call Him a "son of man"—without capital letters. We are making man great when we say that it was possible for Holy Spirit to assume the man-form, or to exhibit to a degree of effectiveness in the man creation, recognized as such in the personality of Jesus.

But let us tell you this: Christ Jesus, the man, and Christos-Lord, the Holy and Angelic avatar Spirit come to earth to epitomize good, are as separate and distinct as you as adults are distinct from what you were when you were youngsters attending a graded school.

Put it in this way: You then had bodies of much lighter size and weight, faces that appeared different, and various other features that marked you as being children. Yet you also had a Spirit inside you, hoary with age, remorseless of concept, eager to plunge forward into circumstance, to grow up, to become as the spirits of adults moving and functioning among adults.

The first was the earthly You, and it changed many times in the course of thirty or forty years. It was the same You that rode as an infant in your mothers' arms and that had its childish ordeals as you gradually came to undertake social responsibilities and adjust yourself to others around you. That You might be comparable to the Carpenter Jesus, or even Jesus the preacher, or Jesus the literal miracle worker. These things are admitted.

But there is a vaster, greater, deeper, older You that is ageless, that was equally as old when you were seven years of age, that felt as old to itself, and recognized its age and wisdom, quite as much as it does at this moment, taking this message.

That You will be quite as young fifty thousand years hence as it is tonight, and after you have occupied two hundred different bodies yet to be born. It is the God-Spirit, the God-stuff, of which you are composed in the essence of your being. That is the Christos Magic Man, the Eternal Ego, the Individualized Logos, or the word made flesh in your particular case.

That is comparable to Jesus the Immaculate Man, the word that evinced as the Son of the Father, the Christ of Gethsemane and Calvary, not Christ of the awakening or the Galilean Shores. Cannot you see that the two are separate and distinct?

Now getting back to the Hebrews:

THE PEOPLE whom you designate as Jews today are not so terrible as some would like to think. Neither are they responsible for all the ills and woes of society. That is an erroneous view to take, a vicious view, and a view that can lead to vast confusions within your own spirit of Christ-hood.

What you want to learn is this: The Jews have this in common with you, the mortal, and every other mortal, that they do worship an ideal. That ideal may not be our ideal as Christians. It may even be incompatible with our ideals as Christians. But it is far from being a negativity, or a malicious urge in all cases.

The Jews of today have their God and their gods. They have their diatribes at civilization. They have their quandaries and perplexities. But they also have something else. They have ideals which they are following, even granted they are wrong ideals from all standards of our knowledge. Nevertheless, in that they are ideals, they are quite worthy of our kindest consideration.

Let us tell you this: The ideals of most of the Jews are wrong ideals from the spiritual standpoint because they are wrongly directed at the enhancement of a caste among a species instead of the enhancement of a species as a whole. That is to say, they cannot seem to arrive at that degree of understanding where they can perceive that it is by recognizing the rights and claims of all peoples to their own integrity that they themselves, that is, the Jews, alter their own worldly condition for the better. That is an inherent fault or flaw in their makeup and until they do realize this profound principle, they are going to be made to suffer. They are going through ordeal upon ordeal, persecution on persecution. But God is not striving to chastise them, as they like to think He is at times, nor yet to discipline them. He is merely letting them endure under a social system where circumstances reveal this profound truth to them in a natural, normal, easy, convincing way.

THE HEBREW who thinks he can procure spiritual and racial advantages for himself by joining with his brethren and "putting up a united front against the Goy or the Gentile" is only cutting his own throat in the long run since such affiliations and confederations are always likely to go in the direction of human foibles, human passions, human weaknesses and lusts for worldly place and power. These confederations are likely to do more than merely protect the Jew. Observing the power that can lie in them for self-protection, the Jew goes further and says, "We will use this means to take advantage of our neighbors who are not smart enough to combine."

He thinks this combining is smartness. He glories in the strength of his kith and kin around him. He is cosmically ignorant of the fact that such combining is admission of a spiritual weakness, since if he were the kind of sentient spirit who perceived what is ethically wrong with himself, he would have no need for such combinations in the first place.

In this respect, the Jew, Hebrew, Israelite, of today is more or less of a lonely child in a world which frankly he does not understand. Literally this is so. The Jew is living in a world which he does not understand, which he never has understood. The "wise" Hebrew, that is, the Hebrew strong in his mortal conceits and feeling more or less secure in the possession of his wealth, may smile at this and retort: "We know a whole lot more about the world than our Gentile neighbors, else why do we succeed and prosper in the world of which we are libeled as being ignorant?"

What the Hebrew does not recognize is, that in his lack of true worldly knowledge he is the prey of circumstance, he is the battledore and shuttlecock of the other races, the most insecure among them all, driven hither and yon promiscuously, the fetcher and carrier of wealth for the nations, because he does not discern his own self-defeatist policy. In that is he not wise, and in that he does not know the world. Because if the Hebrew truly knew the world, and recognized spiritual life in its true essence, there need never be another Jewish persecution of any sort so long as society on the earth endures. When the Jew does know what worldly life is all about, and patterns and models his thinking and spiritual understanding along the correct lines, he never will have another persecution of any sort leveled against him.

NOW let us tell you something more about Jews that you are not aware of. They as a people did not crucify Christ. Remember that. Millions of Jews were the first and original Christians and early church fathers. All the early patriarchs were Jews. No, the entities that succeeded in crucifying Christ were certain deterrent and malign psyches that got themselves incarnated into earthly bodies among that people in order to strike back at the Logos of Light which they recognized as having burst into flame in Jesus, the man.

It is as individuals, or rather, they were individuals, that performed that tragic deed. And while they covered it with a veneer and whitewash of doctrinal orthodoxy, nevertheless, it was not jealousy of the purer forms of the Mosaic theology that they effected to preserve by destroying Him. It was Jesus, the Avatar psyche, that they evilly schemed to get out of the way.

Are You Using the Local Newspapers?

AUTHORIZED SILVER SHIRTS are stirring up their local territories by the right kind of articles, judiciously published . . . .

In the past few days, several dozen clippings have been sent to Headquarters, written by Silver Shirts. Liberation is completely behind every authorized individual in such endeavor.

There is no reason in the world why, if you are a Silver Shirt and consequently are well grounded in this knowledge, you cannot create strong sentiments of public leadership around yourself.

The times are ripe, and shall grow increasingly riper as the public finds out that the confusion of propaganda is not relieving, but only giving the temporary appearance of doing so.

We are not off the Gold Standard as far as the predatory powers are concerned. The heavy stacks in privately owned Federal Reserve vaults are still the lever and the big stick, subsidizing and debauching the citizenry, subversively controlling our government and frantically bluffing a way to world autocracy.

The gold has been called in, in utter violation of the Constitution. The President and the Congress violate their oaths of office by so decreeing. Dictatorship is already in progress. With the gold in the private hands of the International Bankers, it is the plan to deplete the value of our currency so that we shall be completely at their mercy. Prices will rise. An international trade war begins of disastrous consequences. A stock boom with still greater collapse. Serious revolution is smouldering in the Middle West. Megalomaniacs plan with a world tumbling about their heads.

There is news for you to tell with the thunderous voice of sure knowing! Despite newspaper propaganda the public knows a tremendous uneasiness. Suffering and subtle fear is forcing the citizenry to think. The intelligent are welcoming new avenues of thought, particularly when it is constructive!

Let the world know that the Silver Shirts possess the whole truth, with that balance which may be truly constructive in an hour of great trial!

That those who are being admitted into Silver Shirt membership have the stamina of true Leadership is supremely attested by the local sentiments they are now creating throughout the nation.

A letter is before the writer at the present moment from an earnest worker in Idaho. In the conversational style that did not expect publication it is explained:

"I felt that the ground should be prepared as far as possible, for the introduction of the Christ Plan, and of course outside of our own circle, none of that had been done. The local paper had kindly accepted a few articles from me at different times, and that was the next avenue that occurred to me.

"So, I set the result of my self communion on the anniversary of our entering the world war and the recent visit of a Mongoloid Ash'kanazim Jew named Lewis Fisher who lectured on "Why we should Recognize Russia" in our local University, down on paper and sent it in. This is the article which I enclose.

"I felt that perhaps we could get an open forum discussion of matter which would enable me to get our information into print, and we could sort of prepare the ground that way. Well, to say the least, I was not prepared for the result, which is pretty well outlined by the consecutive articles. I am keeping the whole matter before the public in a series of logically told editorials, as it were, setting up the whole story as you have given it to us.

"Comment on my first article came from numerous and varied sources, some of it from perfect strangers, many of them wanting to know "What I was driving at? Needless to say, a little truth is making the people think."

Excerpts from this article are quoted below:

"April 6th, the anniversary of our entering the World War!

"Funny that Mr. Louis Fisher should have just completed a lecture at our university, advocating our recognition and acceptance of the very forces and ideas (please note ideas—not ideals) responsible for that terrible slaughter and hideous nightmare, and who are making every effort to plunge the world into another one.

"Of course we should be open-minded and give all ideas at least a hearing, but we should always have both sides of a question presented to us.

"Mr. Fisher has pictured for us a potential market for America which means "millions of dollars annually" a big argument in these days of stress, as well as the millions in war debts and debts due the National City Bank of New York which Russia—or let us say the forces in Control

"He denies the destruction of the family as a unit in Russian national life, in the face of the marriage and divorce laws and the handling of children by the state, now prevailing there.

"Strange to say however he admits the Soviets are abolishing the church but contents himself with the statement, without advising us what they are giving their people in its place.

"What Mr. Fisher did not tell us, is that the avowed purpose of Soviet Russia is the downfall and extinction of Christ principles and Christ peoples throughout the world.

"Nor did he say that the sponsors of Sovietism are the same band of people who were responsible for the World War and the debauchery of governments throughout the world, nor that they are people who are responsible for the present depression and who are deliberately prolonging it—in order to gain the ends which they have been faithful to, down through the ages.

"Mr. Hitler of Germany recognizes this fact and has the moral courage and stamina to publicly take his stand against this monstrous idea that has reared its head among us—the idea of world dominion and control for their own selfish ends. He is not persecuting a race, as our pulpit and press would have us believe, but he is dealing death blows against an idea, sponsored by a small part of that race, who would drag down innocent members of their own race to accomplish their ends.

"Let the protest of at least one citizen of . . . be vehemently registered against our universities lending themselves to the furthering of this vicious and ungodly idea by permitting such misrepresentations and half truths to be spoken from their rostrums." L. W. S.—Idaho.

"To those desiring: We live in glory, we move in wisdom, we attain to the good of all; We ask in meekness, we guide in Faith; We summon those who seek in Truth."

"The Sack of These United States by the Federal Reserve Board is the Greatest Crime in History"

McFadden's Epochal Speech is Available to You Again!

JUNE, 1932, Rep. Louis T. McFadden made a speech in Congress demanding the impeachment of the President of the United States!

He completely exposed the machinations of the International Bankers as the real factors behind the tragic seriousness of the Depression, and their diabolical control of this nation.

That speech has not been refuted! It deals with facts that would be libel if they were untrue. He was Chairman of the Committee on Treasury and Finance for five years and knows what he was talking about. The facts stand!

McFadden was ridiculed and silenced and has suffered what amounts to a political crucifixion. Huey Long and others are taking their place beside him. The true patriots find themselves alone against a Congress subversively controlled.

Get the facts for yourself! A printing of a thousand of these by The Foundation for Christian Economics were greedily absorbed a month ago. A new supply is available to you on a basis of twenty to the dollar. Write now, to:

Appreciations which Count! . . .

IF YOU are not a member of the Liberation Fellowship, write in now for details. It represents the cream of the Thinking Citizenry who are going forward into the profounder aspects of the Higher Knowledge . . .

Under the auspices of the Foundation for Christian Economics a group of advanced students have been quietly studying what amounts to the highest spiritual teaching that has been given the race. This instruction gives the proof of its authenticity by giving the Unwritten History of the World, dramatically leading into the present. Great Love must deal with the Facts!

This is the background on which the program of the Silver Shirts is built. This great movement is not born so much from the urgency of the times, as it is a concretion of the thinking of the Great Minds through All Time!

The following letters speak eloquently for themselves in the value received:

"My engagement in this study is the only thing that makes life worth living to me; that fills my life with a joy that I'm convinced many don't know; that solves problems in the most beautiful and scientific way and through which I hope to contribute my share in bringing happiness to others." L. S. Illinois.

"I am distinctly active; I approach everything—knowledge, beauty, love, work—from the mental angle. I must understand a thing thoroughly with my mind first. To interest me, any movement must appeal to me by its "inherent reasonableness." That's why Theosophy filled a great need in my life, and why now, the Liberation movement is a godsend to me. It fills those enormous gaps in information that the Theosophical teaching finally left. I must know "what its all about," and Liberation tells that to perfection." N. H., Colorado.

"I can't tell you how I am thrilled in my whole heart, mind, soul and body at the Stupendous Teachings and Plan being given me through the lessons. And the messages from the Elder Brother in both the Assembly Programs and Liberation material are beyond mere words." R. S., California.

"I am following breathlessly your amazing activity, your publications and revelations. My heart goes out to the brave company of the Silver Shirts. In fact, I am much in mind with you people at Galahad College and may God strengthen you hour by hour for your tremendous task." L. B., Turkey.

Executive or the conduct of his office.

Such an audacious proceeding would be "undermining public confidence in existing institutions."

The public must be kept steeped in the psychology that no one can possibly be in a position to criticize the System who is honest, brainy, sound in his principles, or actuated by any other motives than some hidden envy or greed.

Having flooded the country with moronistic Communists, it is easy to indict such honest, brainy, sound, patriotic individuals as being "dangerous visionaries" and keep them in a state of perpetual emasculation or odium.

If you get all the increments of Communism, what does it matter whether it is called Republicanism or Sovietism?

A Significant Sign! . .

U-SSH! Be quiet!! Don't disturb him!!! Let the wily broadcaster of salacious scandal "strut his stuff" on the air and in his "tabloids." Today there are thousands acclaiming Liberation who yesterday knew it not. Anent a recent Winchellism, a sound and alive business executive, in a Million Dollar concern, employing some four thousand men and women, writes:

"It is truly a significant sign of progress to draw the fire of this man. Early in my reading of Liberation literature I got the same urge which you must feel—the deep desire to get to work in the direct accomplishment of a new order of Americanism, to do something to speed the development of the coming changes. I am tied hand and foot to this business. No matter how irksome the delaying and hindering limitations of the present may be, this is my place and I must stick to it so long as it needs me. Nevertheless, that does not prevent me from being keenly interested in and supporting every development and activity of Liberation, and so I am enclosing my check for the War Chest."

Another, at the other extreme of the present social scale, writes, "An odd job yesterday enabled me to earn two dollars. I send one of them to help in your superb effort to bring about a better order of Christian living."

A woman in Maryland contributes this: "Enclosed is my check for Three Dollars for ten more scripts. Those received last week I have read, and reread, and I am ordering additional copies so that I may pass them on to others. Never have I read anything quite so beautiful, uplifting and satisfying to my soul. *** It is a rare privilege to read, and to be thrilled by, these divinely inspired lessons. I count it one of my greatest blessings that Liberation literature has been brought to me, and my great desire now is to bring it to the attention and aid of others."

Our thousands of students, subscribers and readers are first and last Americans—Christian Americans who are most militantly protesting against the debaucheries to which this country and its people are being subjected by the very predatory interests who finance such night-prowling weasels of the air as the column-conductor who by day defiles the minds of millions with his repacious libels in tabloids and daily papers.

Will you Liberators give fighting support to the Silver Shirts? Will you match the sacrifice of William Dudley Pelley even a hundredth part? Will you forego not just a luxury, but actual necessities, in order that this onward march of the Silver Shirts shall not slacken? The enemy has the might of money behind his phalanxes of predaceous procurers with which he seeks to subject America to his lust and greed.

Liberation receives, and blesses to the work of the Master, the pennies of Christians, and they are confounding the pounds of the Anti-Christ. Nightly, transcendent messages tell us not to be concerned too much about finances—that the needs of Liberation will be met—to carry on with our publications without hesitation—to plan wide and rapid extension of Liberation—to fight on and faint not. So be it. We leave the future to the loving Father, in the firm belief that He will point the way and provide the means from out of the unmeasurable Universal Supply.

TO ALL WAR CHEST SUBSCRIBERS

By the time this magazine reaches you, the second of the TWENTY-TWO ARTICLES OF LIBERATION will have been mailed and you should have received receipt from the Treasurer for your donation, and material for distribution among potential Silver Shirts. Please be warned again that there is no one authorized to receive or receipt for subscriptions or donations for any Liberation activity except Headquarters. All fund-raising is being conducted by Headquarters at Asheville, through the magazine or by letter over the signature of the Foundation for Christian Economics. Many warm supporters have secured donations to the War Chest, and are even now searching the highways and byways in our behalf. We ask all such to have subscribers make their remittances payable to "LIBERATION, Asheville" and not to individuals.

With the publicity now being given to the Silver Shirt movement, by those who would defile or devour us, every Liberator must be on guard against those who will rise up and, under the guise of "organizers," "field workers," or "special agents," attempt to capitalize Liberation and the Silver Shirts for selfish personal profit.

Telegraph, collect, full information, covering any one who attempts to procure funds in the name of Liberation, to Liberation Weekly, Asheville, N. C.
